------------------------------	---	-------------------	----------------

Date: 11/6/23

Discussion:

We discussed what defines a team, the pillars of a successful team, and what causes teams to fail. We also discussed shortcomings of the IntensCare team and its members. We will utilize these to write our case study analysis. After this, we brainstormed app ideas for our group project. Some ideas we came up with were a trading app that lets you tweet stock picks/pitches and a chat-based AI model that is fed the latest financial news to aid investors in making informed decisions.

Conclusions:

Each person will complete their respective part of the case study. We will continue to brainstorm and settle on an idea soon, so that we can begin in-depth research on strategy, innovation, and target market disruption as well as develop our presentation. For now, each team member will be tasked with researching one of the ideas we brainstormed, so we can make an educated decision on what to pursue.
